Kate Stark, Winchester 2009

As part of its 10th anniversary celebrations, Free Range, an Old Truman Brewery project supporting new graduate artists and designers, announces a new fashion category with 3 days of graduate fashion shows.

Until now Free Range has presented graduate exhibitions in the creative disciplines of Art, Photography, Design, Graphics and Interiors. Extending this support to graduate fashion designers, Free Range is dedicating an exclusive catwalk-space to graduate fashion shows, with cocktails supplied by Perrier. Your chance to spot the fashion stars of the future...

The Old Truman Brewery already has a history of championing new talent in the world of fashion through its special project Fashion East, and Free Range is now extending that tradition.

The Old Truman Brewery

The Old Truman Brewery, East London's revolutionary arts and media quarter, is home to a hive of creative businesses as well as exclusively independent shops, galleries, markets, bars and restaurants. For fifteen years the Old Truman Brewery has been regenerating its ten acres of vacant and derelict buildings into spectacular office, retail, leisure and event spaces. The finely tuned mix of business and leisure has created an environment unique in London, making the Old Truman Brewery a destination in its own right.

The Old Truman Brewery has a history of supporting and facilitating artists and designers. In 2000 'Truman Brewery Special Projects' launched Free Range and Fashion East (a showcase for breaking fashion designers). This was with a view both to present the Old Truman Brewery as a major creative venue and also to provide young up and coming talent with a platform to perform on an international level. Today these Truman Brewery Special Projects have made a name for themselves and very much push themselves forward under their own momentum.
